Talent management, when handled strategically, flows from the organization's mission, vision, values, and goals. This enables every employee to see where they fit within the organization. This, in turn, enables employees to participate in the overall direction of the company.

The Best Talent Management Practices
Talent management is a business strategy and you must fully integrate it within all of the employee-related processes of the organization. Attracting and retaining talented employees in a talent management system is the job of every member of the organization, but especially managers who have reporting staff (talent).

Why Talent Management Is an Important Business Strategy
The full scope of HR processes: Talent management is about a set of HR processes that are integrated with each other. This means that talent management activities are larger than the sum of the individual parts. This also means that a talent management strategy is required to capitalize on its full potential. More about this later.
