Millionaire Matt Gramling has two set rules for avoiding love-struck secretaries: Never employ anyone under 50 and never date a woman over 25. Karla is determined to become Matt's PA, so she disguises herself as the staid 'Jeanette'! But when Karla begins dating Matt -- as herself -- she knows she's playing with fire . . . And it's only a matter of time before Matt discovers her true identity!

She's at the top of her boss's agenda... Agatha Havers feels totally out of her depth working for Luc Loughton. Hiding behind her shapeless cardigans, she is invisible to her boss... Until Luc discovers the tantalising curves Agatha has been concealing...and suddenly awakening his wholesome secretary goes to the top of his agenda! Agatha finds herself living a fairytale--until she's brought back to reality with a bump...

Trapped with the boss...and now she's pregnant! Only from USA TODAY bestselling author Catherine Mann! Millionaire scientist Easton Lourdes has always preferred wildlife over weddings. But when the sexy bachelor is stranded by a hurricane with his prim-and-proper secretary, the raging storm isn't the only thing that's out of control. Now Portia Soto is pregnant with his child--and determined to keep things professional until she earns enough money to pay off her brother's debts. But can she keep her secret that long? Especially when it becomes clear that Easton will stop at nothing to get her back into his bed...

Passion ignites after office hours in this installment of the ICE: Black Ops Defenders miniseries. Bullets whizzed past as Ryan Reitano and Avery Meadows escaped into the night. How could Ryan have suspected Avery of being the mole inside ICE? It was true she was no ordinary secretary. The way she used her wits and her lethal stiletto heels against the gunmen pursuing them astonished the jaded agent. And that killer body he'd somehow never noticed before... Too bad there wasn't time to explore the possibilities. With Chiara's men hot on their trail, capturing the mercenary was more than just a mission for Ryan. He had his own reasons for wanting the criminal dead. But with his surprising—and utterly enchanting—new partner, perhaps there'd be a chance for romance later...if they survived.

When he thought he was in love with her, he married with a beautiful woman on his arm! Many years later, when she was coquettishly lying in another man's bed, he angrily shouted: "If you like seducing people so much, then seduce me!" She smiled coquettishly, ran her finger across the man's chest, and whispered into his ear, "I'm trying to seduce a man. All these years, you didn't even touch a woman, so what kind of man are you?!"

This book, the first full-length cross-period comparison of medieval and modern literature, offers cutting edge research into the textual and cultural legacy of the Middle Ages: a significant and growing area of scholarship. At the juncture of literary, cultural and gender studies, and capitalizing on a renewed interest in popular western representations of the Islamic east, this book proffers innovative case studies on representations of cross-religious and cross-cultural romantic relationships in a selection of late medieval and twenty-first century Orientalist popular romances. Comparing the tropes, characterization and settings of these literary phenomena, and focusing on gender, religion, and ethnicity, the study exposes the historical roots of current romance representations of the east, advancing research in Orientalism, (neo)medievalism and medieval cultural studies. Fundamentally, Representing Difference invites a closer look at medieval and modern popular attitudes towards the east, as represented in romance, and the kinds of solutions proposed for its apparent problems.
