A friend is someone you always can depend on. These characteristics of a friend are exactly who the Holy Spirit is for us. Learning how to create a relationship with the Spirit is vital to understanding the nature of Jesus. But when we let fear operate inside us, it messes with the way we hear things. The Spirit helps us hear the Lord's voice

Our spirit guides who dwell on the Other Side care as much about us as our friends in the physical world do. Our spirit guides want to get to know us, just like our best friends are keen to hear all the latest gossip. They want to support and nurture us and, best of all, they want to help us make good decisions as we journey through life.
