Some people read this book, hoping for a 'how to' manual on discovering & using hidden sacred knowledge; only to be disappointed. I knew better. Having studied with Dolores personally, I was curious of the book she spoke of being ready to publish & also wanted to support her final work in this lifetime. Her books are pure, genuine and honest.

Mieville and the sci-fi of Margaret Atwood and Doris Lessing. The coming of the Great Stone destroyed almost everything that used to be. But high in one remote valley, the Church of Selene has found its way back from ruin. Sister Luka and her female converts offer sacrifices to the scarred (and very close) moon that hangs over their convent. It has been this way since the Stone hit. Among the Little Sisters of Selene is 12-year-old Aurora, respected Scribe of the church. She endlessly writes down the name of the moon to keep her in the sky where she belongs. But Aurora has a secret book she keeps hidden in her Scribe's chamber and into this diary she pours out her hopes and desires. Upsetting this fragile equilibrium is Willa, a young tomboy whose flamboyant arrival threatens the hard-won status quo of the sisters' community. As Aurora and Willa inch toward friendship, insurrection grows. But when an unexpected marvel occurs in the sky, it is clear that Dolores Cannon uses information obtained from regressive hypnosis to formulate a provocative viewpoint on the ancient astronaut theory of human origins. Her findings indicate that the earth was seeded eons ago by travellers from outer space. These visits by ancient extraterrestrials did not end with their intervention in human evolution. They have continued up to the present day resulting in a whole class of contemporary humans who have been subject to alien abduction.

the "mother God" go? Through thousands of years of interpreting the Bible through the lens of language, changing societies and varying views of females and feminine qualities, the concept of God has become more and more male to the exclusion of God's female side of wisdom, mercy, grace, and nurture. If God is our creator and we are all made in his image, God must be both our father and our mother. Come along as we attempt to rediscover through a study of history and language the truth and expand our understanding of the complete and perfect God. - After thousands of years of distortion, it is now time to look at both sides of God.
